Let's Start!

Getting together with friends is fun!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you go out with your friends?
- What do you suggest doing?
- Where do you suggest going? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and respond to suggestions.
- I can talk about future action, plans and intentions.
- I can talk about personal qualities.

Let's Explore!

It's a date!*

* You say "It's a date!" to confirm that you are definitely going to be somewhere.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: What should we do this weekend, guys?
- Sally: I'm going shopping for an engagement present for John.
- Vanessa: That's a great idea! You're so thoughtful, Sally. Oh, we could go to the new outlet mall! It opens early tomorrow!
- Peter: You two are shopaholics - I can't keep up! I'm too indecisive when I shop.
- Sally: More like stubborn, Peter. Shall I help you? I got a lot of experience shopping in Europe.
- Vanessa: Yeah, with your personal shopper! I'm really picky when I shop. I might need a personal shopper myself.
- Peter: One can dream, Vanessa. So, after we go shopping, what will you want to do?
- Vanessa: Eat!
- Sally: I knew you'd say that! You're so predictable. Let me guess - you're going to cook for us?
- Peter: I know I get grouchy when I shop. Food is a good pick-me-up. What are you going to make for us, V?
- Vanessa: You guys are so demanding! Hmm, should I make a Thai curry?
- Sally: Yes!
- Peter: Sounds great! We're having dinner at V's house on Saturday!
- Vanessa: It's a date!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Asking for and Responding to Suggestions

When you ask for or make suggestions, you use modals.

When you make a suggestion, you give ideas or ways to do something.

Example: We could go to the supermarket first.

When you respond to a suggestion, you let the person know how you feel about their suggestion in a polite way.

Example: That sounds good.

Ask/Make Suggestions	Respond to Suggestions
Hmm, should I make a Thai curry?	That's a great idea!
Shall I help you?	Thanks!
Oh, we could go to the new outlet mall!	You guys are shopaholics!
Let's go out for dinner!	I'd like that!
How about a movie!	OK, sounds good.

Learning Points

Talking About Family

When you talk about family, you often describe their personal qualities. You can talk about their behavior and their personalities.

Behavior is the way a person acts or conducts themselves.

Example: Tom is usually relaxed, but today he seems nervous.

Personality is a person's general character (they way they are).

Example: Sandra is a tidy person. Her apartment is always clean and neat.

We use adjectives to talk about behavior and personality.

Adjective	Synonym
demanding	exacting; tough
picky	fussy; particular
predictable	as expected
grouchy	surly; testy
embarrassing	disconcerting; upsetting
presumptuous	rude; pretentious
uncompromising	inflexible; obstinate

Examples:

- You're so predictable.
- I know I get grouchy when I shop.
- That's very presumptuous of you.
- I can be a little picky sometimes.
